- (4) Provider supplied quantifiable educational contact hours, i.e., CEUs or other nationally recognized unit of continuing education hours.

i) CE Taken Prior to Georgia Certification

Courses, tests or other CE activities dated prior to a reporter's initial Georgia certification will not be eligible for CE credit.

4. Repetition of Classes

The CRTC discourages the repetition of a class within a period of three calendar years. However, classes directly applicable to the development of court reporting skills and of sufficient complexity to warrant repetition may be taken a second time within the 3-year period. CRTC review may be required. In most cases, classes repeated within three calendar years will not receive credit. Repetition of a home study class within three calendar years will not be allowed.

C. Requesting CE Credit Hours and Allocation

1. Request for Credit

Within 30 days after attending an educational activity (or by December 31, whichever is earlier), request for credit must be submitted to the Board of Court Reporting through the Georgia Courts Registrar.

Forms are available at the Board of Court Reporters website: <http://bcr.georgiacourts.gov> A complete request for credit includes the following:

- a) Verification of attendance as furnished by the CE Provider;
Verification may be in the form of a punch card, a certificate of completion, an NCRA/NVRA/AAERT transcript, a grade card, a letter from the course provider with original signature, or some other verifiable proof of attendance. The verification must include quantifiable educational contact hours or allow clear computation of CE credit hours according to the guidelines stated in this Manual (i.e., punchcard with accompanying itemized agenda, transcript/grade report for completion of a college degree course, etc.).
The pertinent date of a CE course shall be the date the course was completed, the date the test was taken (for professional exams and speed tests), or the date the certificate was issued (for home study courses).
- b) CRTC-2 Course Evaluation form, or a reasonable facsimile; and
- c) A copy of the program schedule or agenda, if the course was not preapproved by the CRTC.

NOTE: Reporters should keep a copy of all items submitted for their records. Discrepancies in the information provided shall be resolved by the CRTC. Incomplete requests will be returned.

2. Confirmation by the Court Reporters Training Council

- a) Reporters can review their CE credit hour status by logging into their Georgia Courts Registrar accounts.
- b) As needed, reporters will be notified through the Georgia Courts Registrar of: (1) denial of request for credit; (2) any changes made to the request; (3) significant delay in processing due to the necessity for CRTC review; or (4) issues deemed necessary for clear communication of CE records.

3. CRTC Review of CE Submissions

- a) A court reporter who receives a denial of request for credit through the Georgia Courts Registrar may appeal in writing to the CRTC within 30 days after receipt of the denial. The appeal should state in detail the reason for disagreement as well as a request for reconsideration. Address: Board of Court Reporting, CRTC Appeal, 244 Washington Street, Suite 300, Atlanta GA 30334.
- b) All CE deadlines remain intact during the review process. Thus, a reporter may need to submit alternate training to satisfy a deadline while the appeal is pending.
No credit will be given until the CRTC renders a decision.

4. Audit of Attendance Records

BCR will, at its discretion, conduct periodic audits to verify attendance records submitted with requests for credit.

5. Falsified Records

In the event that the BCR staff is unable to verify the information provided through the Georgia Courts Registrar with the request for credit and is satisfied after exercising due diligence to contact course sponsors and the applicant that the information provided is false, both the CRTC and the CCR will be informed that credit is denied. CRTC will forward the suspect information with a full report of the investigative action taken to the BCR for further investigation and possible disciplinary proceedings.

6. Allocation of CE Credit Hours

CE credit hours will be allocated to fulfill annual requirements on a chronological basis. Hours earned in a given year will apply first toward incomplete annual requirements. Once a given year's CE requirement of 10 hours is met, up to 10 excess CE credit hours completed in that year will be applied to the next year's CE requirement. After these 20 hours have been credited, any additional hours earned will be reported in the year the course was completed.

D. Compliance with CE Training Requirements

1. Correction of Record

Each reporter carries the responsibility to review his or her CE credit hour status through the Georgia Courts Registrar and, if necessary, provide BCR with information to correct the record. If the deficiency is a matter of having failed to submit evidence of continuing education credits already obtained, the court reporter shall submit proof to BCR of such CE credits, pursuant to Part II.C.1, which must be postmarked by December 31st of that year.

2. Suspension and Revocation

a) Failure to Meet Annual CE Requirement

A certificate is automatically suspended for failure to meet the annual CE requirement. Suspension is effective immediately upon noncompliance. A suspended certificate may be reinstated by curing the cause of the suspension before December 31 of the year in which the suspension occurs. If the suspension is not cured by December 31 of the year in which the suspension occurs, the certificate is automatically revoked.

b) Failure to Meet CE Requirement for Newly Certified Court Reporters

Any newly-certified Georgia court reporter who fails to complete the LEAP seminar as required shall be automatically suspended and must cease all court reporting. This suspension shall result in automatic revocation if said newly-certified Georgia court reporter fails to complete the next LEAP seminar following suspension.

If the certificate is revoked, the reporter may become certified again only by meeting current certification requirements, and no sooner than the first day of April following the date of revocation. The revoked reporter must also pay a penalty fee as established by the Board.

3. Discipline for Failure To Comply

Failure to comply with the continuing education requirements shall also be grounds for disciplinary action under Article 11 of the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Court Reporting of the Judicial Council of Georgia. Sanctions may be imposed for the following reasons:

- a) Failure to complete required credits within specified time period
- b) Failure to submit required reporting form or proof of compliance
- c) False information on a reporting form

E. Extension of Time to Meet CE Requirements

1. The CRTC may, for extenuating circumstances on a case-by-case basis, recommend to the BCR that an extension of time to meet the CE requirements be granted. Under no circumstances will applications for an extension of time be considered until the reporter has received a Notice of Suspension.
2. No extension of time shall be granted unless written application and supporting documentation are properly submitted (Form CRTC-3). Filing of request will not stay the suspension of a CCR's license to practice. Suspension may only be lifted when the reporter is notified by the BCR.

3. The CRTC shall have 60 days in which to rule on a request for extension of time. The granting of an extension of time to meet delinquent CE requirements may be granted at the discretion of the CRTC and the BCR, and shall be in the manner prescribed by the CRTC or the BCR.

If you have any questions regarding to the course audit process please contact the Board of Court Reporting;*
11. Notify BCR of changes to contact information, course schedules or course content.

B. Standards for Program Preapproval (annual renewal required)

Each proposal for a CE Program should be submitted with form CRTC-4, 90 days prior to the date of training, to: bcr@georgiacourts.gov. Staff will notify you that your application is under review upon receipt, and will notify you when final approval has been granted. The proposal should contain or provide:

1. Information regarding registration;
2. Whether the CE Provider is seeking one-time approval or approval for the calendar year;
3. A statement of the activity's learning objectives, with a description of what the reporter will be better able to do as a result of taking part;
4. Instructors thoroughly versed in the substantive contents of the topic;
5. A lesson plan that details specific objectives, activities, and assessments that will be presented and utilized during the course. A lesson plan template has been provided on the BCR website. Providers are not required (though they are strongly encouraged) to use the template, but application materials must fulfill all of the following requirements:

- a) List the title of the course
 - b) List the objectives covered (see Part II section B of the Continuing Education Manual for Georgia Certified Court Reporters for the approved subject guidelines)
 - c) A list of all informational and visual materials used for the course. This included textbooks, computer programs, worksheets, PowerPoint presentations, etc.
 - d) An outline of the activities planned for the lesson with information on the structure of the activity (lecture, worksheet, group work, etc.), which subjects that activity focuses on (commas, spelling, organizing spreadsheets, etc.), and how the instructor will assess student engagement and comprehension (graded worksheets or exams, Q&A, discussion, group presentations, etc.) Please note that a written exam is not required for live courses, but there must be some means for the instructor to gauge the student's understanding of the course material.
6. Evidence that the course activities require student engagement and understanding on multiple cognitive levels as outlined by Bloom's Taxonomy. Information on Bloom's Taxonomy is referenced on the BCR website under CE Provider Resources.
 7. Copies of all visual aids to instruction, PowerPoint presentations, worksheets, forms, etc. for emphasis and clarification. Please note that any provider created materials that utilize outside sources must provide a bibliography. All sources used should be reputable and verifiable sources. For information on how to effectively evaluate and cite sources, please see the CE Provider section of the BCR website;
 8. A course evaluation form for participants to assess the effectiveness of the instructional activity (e.g., CRTC-2);
 9. A setting physically suitable to the educational activity of the course, with a suitable writing surface provided where necessary;
 10. A written record evidencing successful completion of the course to be provided to each reporter, with a separate copy to be retained by the CE Provider for a period of 3 years. The attendance verification may be a certificate, a letter from the provider, an attendance punch card, or other documentation reviewed and agreed upon by the sponsoring organization and the CRTC. It must include:
 - a) The name of the sponsoring organization;
 - b) The name of the course;
 - c) The name of the participant;
 - d) The signature of the CE Provider (optional for punch cards);
 - e) The number of educational contact hours or CEUs earned (for punch cards, punches corresponding to sessions attended);
 - f) The date of completion.

Note: It is the responsibility of each individual reporter to submit the Verification of Attendance information to BCR with a Request for Credit. If the CE Provider wishes to submit a list of attendees and hours completed to BCR as a courtesy, it is helpful.

11. Annual renewal is required for each successive year's approval of a course. The BCR will inform CE Providers when submissions for the new year will be accepted and the sponsoring organization shall submit the CRTC-4 Request for Preapproval form at that time for renewal of identical programming for the following calendar year. If the course is unchanged, no additional paperwork is required, unless requested by the CRTC. Note that court reporter participants will not receive credit toward their annual CE requirements for repeating the same course.

C. Correspondence Course Standards for Preapproval (annual renewal required)

Because of the independent nature of home study or correspondence courses, additional information is needed for review and accreditation. In addition to the requirements set forth in Part B, above, the sponsoring organization of a correspondence course shall submit the following:

1. Quantification of the educational contact hours, which can be any of the following;
 - a) Certification of CEUs or other nationally recognized unit of continuing education hours;
 - b) A copy of the course with an explanation of recommended creditable hours of study;
 - c) Other methodology reviewed and agreed by the sponsoring organization and the Court Reporters Training Council.
2. Evidence that the course includes interactive feedback and/or testing which illustrates accomplishment of the requisite educational contact hours and reasonable understanding of the material.
3. Statement of the methodology by which the sponsoring organization substantiates the authenticity of the student's work, such as a dated signature certifying that the test or homework was accomplished by the student of record.
4. Annual renewal is required for each successive year's approval of a course. The sponsoring organization shall submit the CRTC-4 Request for Preapproval form by October 1 for renewal of identical programming for the following calendar year. If the course is unchanged, no additional paperwork is required, unless requested by the CRTC. Note that court reporter participants will not receive credit toward their annual CE requirements for repeating the same course.

D. Participant Evaluation of Continuing Education Courses and Providers

A written course or curriculum critique form shall be provided to each CCR and required to be completed by each reporter at the end of each course or seminar/workshop. Form CRTC-2 may be used. Where possible, preprint the "Request for Credit" and "Evaluation Form" with the CE Provider information (i.e. name, address, phone number, location, and name of event).
